

Vote
here

BALLOT -- SAINT ANASTASIA PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL NOMINEES 2017

Please select two candidates and vote by placing an X by their picture

	Meghan Finnerty DiRosato	Who I am	Why am I a candidate
		My husband Christopher and I are former parishioners of Nativity BVM Parish. We have three small children: Madeline, Fiona, and Andrew. I am a graduate of Notre Dame University and presently a litigation partner at Offit Kurman where I represents businesses and non-profits.	We have felt so welcomed by this parish and wish to pay that warm reception forward through service on Pastoral Council. I hope to bring my unique perspective to Council using a collaborative nature and problem solving skills that I have honed through motherhood and the practice of law.

	Ed McDade	Who I am	Why I am a candidate
		My wife Barbara and I have been married 41 years and have been members here since 1980. We have two grown sons, Ed and Bob. I attended OHara and Drexel and worked in the Chemical industry, starting my own company in 1990 (German Chemical Co.)	attends daily mass /on the board of the parish mission

	John Loughran	Who I am	Why I am a candidate
		My wife Pat and I have been members of parish for 31 years. Our three children all attended St. Anastasia School. I taught for 25 years in the Springfield School District and retired in 2014. Since then I have taken the job of Sacristan here at the parish. In the past I have coached CYO baseball and softball. I have been a Eucharistic Minister since 2011 and was on the Parish Mission committee.	I was honored to be nominated for the Pastoral Council. I hope to bring open-mindedness, flexibility, and a belief that all are positively impacted by God.

	Brigid Shank	Who I am	Why am I a candidate
		My husband Steve and I have been members of this parish for 30 years. We have three children who attended St. Anastasia School. I graduated from Villanova University and currently work at Melmark Inc. I serve the parish as a Eucharistic Minister at Sunday Mass and at Broomall nursing home. In past years, I have been active in the Home & School Association and the Endowment Committee	I am honored to be nominated and hope to faithfully serve the parish as a member of the Pastoral Council.