We, the parishioners of Saint Anastasia, are a strong faith based community, grounded in more than a century of Catholic tradition, rooted in worship and service. Compelled by the Good News of Jesus Christ, we are committed to growing in a deeper relationship with God and with one another. We strive to become a more vibrant parish by inspiring an atmosphere of belonging, of welcoming, and by promoting opportunities to share and spread our Catholic Faith, so that we may be more united as one parish community.

THIRTY THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In the context of Luke, today's Gospel appears near the end of Jesus' teaching in Jerusalem, just prior to the events that will lead to his crucifixion. His warnings and predictions are ominous but can be read in many ways. To those who first heard Luke's Gospel, those may have been words of encouragement. The destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem by the Romans was history (70 A.D.); Luke's Gospel, Catholic scholars propose, was written between 80 and 90 A.D. His audience was probably Gentile Christians. Luke here tries to interpret the fall of Jerusalem for them and to locate it in God's plans for salvation history. At the same time, Luke is suggesting to his audience that there will be a considerable elapse of time before Jesus' final coming. Luke's listeners have likely seen much upheaval and are anxious to know if these are the signs of Jesus' coming. Luke is urging greater patience.

In the second part of today's Gospel, Jesus warns that his followers will face persecution for their beliefs. Luke presents persecution as an opportunity for the followers of Jesus for “It will lead to your giving testimony” (Luke 21:13). In persecution God's wisdom and power will be shown in the example of followers of Jesus. Perseverance in the face of persecution will lead to their salvation. Here Jesus is assuring his followers that God is present to all believers, even in times of trouble. Ultimately, Jesus will witness to this with his own death. As disciples of Jesus, we try to follow his example, trusting in God's mercy and protection, even when we are facing difficulties.
With a degree from the University of Pennsylvania, Eric Banecker had plenty of career options. Growing up in South Philadelphia and riding the subway to Roman Catholic High School, he’d seen the faces of too many people who looked like they hated their jobs. Eric knew he didn’t want to look like that.

The idea of becoming a priest had been on and off Eric’s radar since he worked as a sacristan in 8th grade at Epiphany of Our Lord Parish. After becoming involved at the Newman Center at Penn, the thought of becoming a priest started to take root. He began to think about his faith more, and to ask serious questions. Many priests he knew had joyfully dedicated themselves to serve Christ and His Church. Attracted to that kind of life, Eric decided to put other interests aside and enter Saint Charles Seminary.

Like most vocations, Eric’s call was not a St. Paul-on-the-road-to-Damascus experience. Rather, it was a gradual process that simply required him to be open to the possibility, open to understanding his own faith, and open to letting God work in his life. God willing, in May of 2017, Eric will be ordained a deacon, and the following year, a priest.

While being a priest is in many ways a life of sacrifice, Eric feels that he’s getting back much more than he’s giving up. In his pastoral assignments, he has found that he especially enjoys working with families and young people. Ironically, he has found a certain freedom in this life of obedience. This past year also included the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to meet Pope Francis and serve at his Mass in Philadelphia.

Our Seminary is filled with men like Eric — educated, thoughtful, aware of all that is expected of them, and eager to dedicate their lives to the service of all of us.

FORMED: NOVEMBER FEATURE: GOD'S UNWAVERING MERCY
This month we celebrate the conclusion of the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy declared by Pope Francis, "so that we may become a more effective sign of the Father's actions in our lives...a time when the witness of believers might grown stronger and more effective." There are many resources on FORMED.org to help us personally experience and reflect God's Mercy to others. Back by popular demand, "Divine Mercy - In The Second Greatest Story Ever Told", narrated by Fr. Michael Gaitley MIC, can be accessed in the Programs section. "Life for Life", the amazing story of St. Maximilian Kolbe's life, can be found in the Movies section. "The Saving Power of Divine Mercy" in the Audio section zeros in on God's Mercy and our response to His Love. Once you have set up an account at FORMED.org with the parish code GBVKP9, all you need is internet access and your email and password to access these fantastic resources.

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY
The Gospel predicts end times; our challenge though is to live faithfully now. St. Vincent often asked this simple question: “What would Jesus Christ do, if he were in my place now? Ask yourself “What would Jesus Christ do” and then put your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box so that those who are suffering will be able to celebrate Thanksgiving.

AL-ANON MEETINGS - ROSE TREE ALATEEN
Monday Nights at 8:00 PM at Rose Tree Reformation Church, Media. For more information call 215-222-5244.

DO YOU KNOW YOUR TRIBUNAL?
The Tribunal is a group of specially qualified priests, sisters, and lay persons whose responsibility is to come to the help of people who have experienced divorce. When a divorce occurs, the Catholic Church always seeks to balance two realities. One is the unbreakableness of the bond of marriage. This is God’s law. It cannot be broken by human intervention. On the other hand, the Church is concerned about the spiritual welfare of the people involved. Was this a true marriage? Even though a Catholic marriage was celebrated, was there perhaps some weakness in the consent of the parties involved? The annulment procedure addresses this problem without affixing blame on either party. If you are divorced or married outside the Catholic Church, call the Tribunal Office at 215-587-3750. All interviews are private.

Maybe, our Hope Ministry is calling you. This is also a way to meet someone new in the parish and to build a relationship. There will be flyers at the Church door if you are interested. If you have any questions, please contact Sister Sue. (susanssj@comcast.net or 484-422-8861.
